SEOH USBC Hall of Fame Inductions

In the Superior Performance Division Larry Fox will be honored. Larry has been bowling for numerous years logging five 300 games, numerous 700 series and an 800 series. He has maintained an excellent bowling records at Tiki, Lincoln, Zanesville and Cambridge Bowling Lanes. He has held office in Lancaster Bowling Association and served as president for three terms. He was formerly a regional pro with the Professional Bowlers Association.

For her Meritorious Service, Ginny Sims will be inducted. Ginny has promoted the game of bowling with enthusiasm and dedication. She has served as treasurer of the Lancaster Women's 600 Bowling Club for nearly 30 years. She bowled on the Tiki Traveling Team, bowled in State Qualifiers, Queens and Lawson Pro-Am Tournaments. She has placed first in numerous leagues and tournaments. She also has had several high games and series.

In the Pioneer Division for Meritorious Service for the first time ever there will be a dual induction. Robert Black and Harry Short will share this honor. Bob and Harry are being inducted together as they have certainly promoted the game of bowling by being co-owners of 20th Century Lanes. Numerous bowlers had their start at 20th Century Lanes. Harry will be honored posthumously.

Following the Hall of Fame inductions others will be honored. Leo Kunkler, Sr. will be awarded with the Senior Award of Merit. Leo has furthered the game of bowling with his service to the leagues that he has bowled in, including acting as league secretary for many years and bowling in the K of C leagues that were hosted by Lincoln Lanes and Tiki Lanes. He has participated in several local and state Tournaments including the Lancaster 600/700 club tournament.

And where would our game be without dedicated sponsors? Selected this year for the Sponsor of the Year Award are the Orange Carpet and Citi Bar . Mark Brobeck, owner of both establishments, was very eager to start sponsoring teams and is currently sponsoring two teams in the All Star League. Mark has always been a loyal supporter of bowling in Lancaster and is worthy of receiving the Sponsor of the Year Award.

Come and congratulate these bowlers and award winners at the Moose Lodge on April 5 reservations are needed and more information is on page 4.

We hope to see you there. All SEOH USBC bowlers are invited.
