SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE PIONEER – Ron Dillon

Ron has been involved in many areas of bowling at Starlite and Tiki Lanes. He has held positions in the LBA, such as President and Director and in 2005 he won Director of the year. He has been involved in many committees while a Director in the LBA and was the All Star President, as well. Ron has bowled in various leagues at Starlite and Tiki Lanes along with bowling with Ohio Air Guard in Columbus. He has on the lane accomplishments such as a 299 game, 11 in a row and both times, shot well over 700 series. He was Actual & Handicap All Events winner in the Lancaster City Tournament in 1992, 700 Club Tournament Champion in 1994 and 1997. Ron has bowled in the USBC Open Championship Tournaments. He currently is not bowling but, high average has been a 202. Ron has been a LBA Senior Qualifier since 2003 and was a Class C winner in 2006. Congratulations on this prestigious award Ron!

SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE – Daniel Thimmes

Danny began his bowling career at a young age in the Junior bowling program at Lincoln and Tiki Lanes. His first year bowling in adult leagues, he was the youngest bowler to bowl a perfect game in the All Star League, at the age of 19. Danny has many high score accomplishments, 8-300 games, a 299 game, 3-11 in a row and 4-800 series with his high 813 which he rolled in 2016. He has bowled in many leagues at Circle D, Lincoln and Tiki Lanes along with bowling in the prestigious Columbus Traveling League. Daniel and his father, Ed, were the first in the 800 circle of father and sons rolling 800 series. They were the 4th father and child to join the 300 circle in the SEOH USBC Association. He is currently bowling in the Thursday Nite His'N Hers League and carrying an average of 225. His highest average has been a 228. While bowling in the Lancaster All Star League in 2004-2005, he led the season 200 game average 82 out of 102 games or 84% . Daniel also led the 600 series average with 28 out of 31 sets or 90% . As you see, if you are going to get past him, it is because you bowled your butt off! Congratulations Daniel!

SPONSOR OF THE YEAR - Sheridan Funeral Home

Sheridan Funeral Home has been sponsoring a team or teams since 1965. In 1967 Phil Sheridan sponsored a team but bowled on another team. Sheridan Funeral Home has been involved in the community and has been well known in Lancaster, for many years. Thank you for supporting the sport of bowling and congratulations Sheridan Funeral Home!

More honorees!

SENIOR AWARD OF MERIT – Ken Hoch

Kenneth has bowled on various LBA and SEOH leagues at Tiki Lanes through the years. He established a left handed average mid-season 2006-2007, when he hurt his right hand. Kenneth has also been the League Secretary of the Gasco League. He has bowled in many Senior tournaments but, is currently not bowling. Kenneth is a pretty quiet bowler and maintained the same attitude even when he was bowling badly.

Congratulations Kenneth!

SENIOR AWARD OF MERIT– Paul Poling

Paul has bowled various leagues at Tiki and Starlite lanes, including the American Legion/VFW. He is currently bowling in LBA Seniors league and is carrying a 136 average. Paul is always quick with a joke. If you were bowling against him and you were bowling well, he would encourage you to keep going. If there were ever an award for Sportsmanship, he would get one!

Congratulations Paul!
